

Diversity in debut show

Exhibition | Liam Ryan

AN exhibition examining Turkish and Australian culture in one woman's destiny is in Malvern this month.

Kismet is the first solo exhibition for artist Guler Altunbas, at The Stables Gallery. "I'm pretty excited about it!" Altunbas said.

Her 30 new works are ambitious and diverse in their variety, including paintings, prints, photos, ceramics, sculpture, a short film, and audio elements. Altunbas said the works reflected her Turkish and Australian heritage.

Kismet is on show until November 11 at 54 Burke Rd, Malvern, 10am-5pm, weekdays. All works will be for sale.

Read more online at stonningtonleader.com.au